

PARENTING, CULTURE AND RELIGION WORKING WITH MUSLIM FAMILIES

This 1-day training is for practitioners working directly with families.

THE MAIN OUTCOMES ARE:

- Considering how cultural issues impact on parenting and the implications for practice
- Consolidating understanding of Islam
- Increasing self-awareness regarding issues relating to culture
- Exploring the difference between religion and culture
- Reflecting on helpful skills and qualities to enhance practice

COURSE CONTENT:

- What is culture? What is religion?
- About Islam
- Parenting styles
- Cultural competence
- Cultural values and differences
- Our own skills and qualities

COST:

The cost is £2,750 for up to 20 people. This includes two key resources which can be used with families: The Parenting Puzzle book and the Islamic Values Parenting Puzzle booklet.

CONTACT:

Do not hesitate to contact us to find out more about the programme or to book a team training.

You can call our office on 01865 401 800 or send an email to training@familylinks.org.uk

PARENTING, CULTURE AND RELIGION WORKING WITH MUSLIM FAMILIES

What previous trainees have said about the training:

“This has been the most engaging, intuitive and informative training I have attended.”

“It will help me to notice when my judgment is affecting what I do, based on the idea of cultural naivety.”

“Excellent materials to take away and excellent trainer.”

“It has given me a better understanding of cultural norms and differences in parenting.”

“The training inspired me to look more into family dynamics and try to understand reasons behind certain practices.”

“It has given me more confidence to challenge and question when Islamic faith is used to justify certain practices.”

“Lots of questions and reflections for my own practice.”